

"A Yard of Pansies."

Now is your chance! "A Yard of Pansies," an exquisite oil-picture, a companion to "A Yard of Roses," which has been so universally admired, is given, free of cost, as a souvenir with every copy of Demorest's Family Magazine for June. "A Yard of Pansies" was painted by the same noted artist, V. Janus, who painted the "Roses," but competent art-critics pronounce the "Pansies" to be superior to the "Roses." "A Yard of Pansies" was painted to order at a cost of $300, and the reproduction, which is given with each magazine, is in every respect equal to the original. And this is only one of the many notable features that make the June number the best one ever issued. The first article, "Mammoth Cave by Flash-Light," is the finest one ever published on the subject, and is illustrated by over a score of superb pictures—pictures of places that have never before been photographed, so that one may become familiar with the wonders and beauties of this marvelous place without incurring the fatigue and expense of a personal visit. "The Queen of Flowers" is a charming article about the rose, with illustrations of all the fashionable varieties, actual size. "A Panoramic View of Existing Religions," by Rev. Carlos Martyn, will interest everybody, and explain many points of likeness and difference between religious beliefs of the present day. Sergeant Dunn of the U. S. Weather Bureau at New York has a splendid illustrated article, "How the Weather is Forecast." All who have dabbled in photography will enjoy the humor of "A Successful Failure" and the accompanying pictures. Then there are excellent stories, every department is overflowing with good things, and there are about 250 illustrations, including a full-page portrait of the publisher. And this June number costs only the usual price, 30 cents. The subscription price is $4 a year. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York.

Newark Bee Hive

Still More Room Necessary For Our Business.

Notwithstanding the large amount of room gained by last year's leases of adjoining properties the rapid increase in trade since then has necessitated contracts for the building of a commodious rear annex, and the occupancy of three immense new floors, 125 feet long by 25 feet wide. Extensive alterations are now under way, and to consolidate our stocks in as little space as possible to make way for carpenters, masons and builders, and to attract as much attention as possible to our many improvements. We shall inaugurate for the month of May A Special Sale that will outshine in Good Values any of its Predecessors.

New merchandise in every department will be offered NOW while in-seasonable demand at cut prices that will prove to every Visitor the wisdom of purchasing then and there.

For full details see Newark Papers, or write to us for Catalogue of Offerings.

Seeing is Believing.

Faith is like a clock. It needs works to make it go. Now we don't want you to believe all we say. Only enough to come and see. You will know the rest by our "works."

Our works are men's clothes. We make Suits for all sorts of men, (except chessmen.) For instance, we have Spring Suits, all the new patterns, and some still popular old ones, from $10 up to $26. With boys, we begin small and work up. From the time he first puts on trousers till he stops being a boy at all. Prices begin young and grow, too! $3 up to $20.

It is the same way with Overcoats. Men's sizes and styles, $8 to $24; boys', $9 to $12. They are light materials, cut and fit like garments "made-expressly-for-you."

Among our hats is a Derby of stylish block for $2.00.

Faith is said to move mountains, but it won't move our store to you. You must come to us. We will do the rest.
